

Consign with us...

What type of items do we accept at MONA?

Women's on-trend, contemporary and designer clothing and accessories. We will except new (tags on) and good conditioned items.

How do I get my items into MONA?

You can bring in your items anytime Mon-Sat 10-4 to the shop located at 1037 Fort Street, Victoria BC V8V 3K5.

How should I prepare my items for consignment at MONA?

All items must be laundered/ dry cleaned and in a bag or box. We will not accept unlaundered clothing.

How will my items be priced at MONA?

We will set prices on our knowledge of retail value, brand, condition, and style. We greatly appreciate any information you may have about your items.

What percentage do I earn on consigned items?

You will earn 40% of the final selling price. Items can be marked down do to promotions and length of time in the shop

What will happen to your items that don't sell at MONA?

By your choosing, on our contract you sign, your items can either picked up or will be donated to our local charity of choice The James Bay Community Closet & Wear to Start..

How will I receive payment for my items?

We issue payments by e-transfer or cheque quarterly. You can also use your account balance to shop at the store.

How long will my items stay in the shop?

Your items can stay up to three months depending on seasonality

